

Data protection declaration of Wilhelm Layher GmbH & Co. KG for suppliers

Introduction

All citizens have the constitutionally guaranteed right to determine the use to which their own personal data may be put. This places us under an obligation to protect all personal data.

Protective measures

The employees who come into contact with personal data are trained in accordance with Section 5 of the Federal Data Protection Act and placed under an obligation of data confidentiality. Our IT is constantly adapted to the current circumstances and the requirements of technical security standards.

Personal data

We collect, process and use personal data insofar as this is necessary to implement and organise the business relationship. In addition, we may also use these data for other purposes if appropriate and if you have given us your consent to do so.

Transmission of personal data to third parties

We only use the personal information for internal purposes in the course of our relationship with the supplier. If any third parties are involved in working procedures and it is therefore temporarily necessary to provide them with your data for processing, we apply the same high data protection standards and oblige the third party to maintain confidentiality and to comply with the data protection regulations and our data protection principles.

Right of information

On request, we will provide you with information about personal data about you which we have stored. In addition, you are of course entitled to demand that any errors and inaccurate data be corrected, updated, deleted or blocked.

Areas of responsibility

If you have any questions about the processing of your personal data, you can contact the data protection representative who is also available for information, suggestions and complaints, and who can be contacted as follows:
